Dear Nina,

We are pleased to inform you that you have been selected to receive the ABA Criminal Justice Section Charles R. English Award. We will present the award at our Awards Luncheon during the CJS Fall Meeting in Washington, DC on November 3, 2017. Please let us know if you are available to attend.

As you know, the English Award is bestowed on judges, prosecutors, the defense bar, academics, and other attorneys who are members of the American Bar Association Criminal Justice Section and have distinguished themselves by their work in the field of criminal justice. In selecting you, the Awards Committee determined that you meet the following criteria: (1) exemplified ethical and professional conduct; (2) provided exceptional service to the Criminal Justice Section; (3) engaged in activities that increased the stature and professionalism of lawyers who practice in the criminal justice system; and (4) enhanced the relationship between prosecutors and defense bar by setting an example that subordinated parochial defense bar and prosecution views in both professional and bar association endeavors in favor of achieving a result that promotes fairness and justice.

You will join an esteemed group of past recipients of this award including: Terence MacCarthy (2000); Neal Sonnett (2001); Michael Johnson (2002); Hon. Andrew Sonner (2003); Stephen Saltzburg (2004); Albert Krieger (2005); Raymond Banoun (2006); Guantanamo Military Commissions Military Defense Counsel (2007); Michael Pasano (2008); Janet Levine (2009); Irwin Schwartz (2010); Robert Johnson (2011); Morris "Sandy" Weinberg (2012); Myrna Raeder (2013); Andrew Taslitz (posthumously, 2014); and Ronald Goldstock (2015); and James Felman (2016).

We look forward to honoring you at our award presentation this fall. Feel free to contact CJS Director Kevin Scruggs at (202) 662-1503 should you have questions or need additional information.

Sincerely

Matthew F. Redle, Chair
ABA Criminal Justice Section
